

ABSTRACT

A center site on net is prepared to record every data requested by client to be recorded by electronic database system and, when the center site recorded these data, the center site issues any receipt to the client. .

When requested by the client site with this receipt, the center site notarizes its record, data, text, images, with issued receipt and recorded date.